CONNECT TO THE INTERNET

Stay safe during COVID19

During these trying times, it's important to stay safe and healthy. Remember to wash your hands for at least 20 seconds and practice social distancing. Stay connected and informed by enrolling in an internet program today.

There are several affordable internet services geared towards eligible low-income families who need to get connected today. These programs are designed to tackle the digital divide concern our vulnerable communities are currently trying to overcome.

United Ways of California is helping to inform as many families as possible to get them connected today. Read on for all the programs available.
